

KNOCKLOUGHRIM SCHOOL NEWS

27th
Feb.
2015

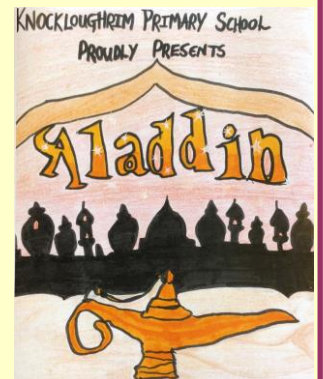

Welcome to this week's newsletter and our last for February. Tomorrow is the first official day of Spring and hopefully it will begin to feel like it in school too. Plans are well under way for our Pantomime at the end of the month and I would encourage you to keep checking the newsletters this month as we will keep you informed of our additional rehearsal and performance dates. Please keep these events and all the members of our learning community in your thoughts this week.

Aladdin: As many of you are aware our school Panto is being performed on Wednesday 25th & Thursday 26th March at 7pm in Knockloughrim Presbyterian Church hall. Unfortunately we are unable to sell tickets at the door for this event due to the churches performance license. We are therefore selling tickets in advance so your actual seat will be allocated for you and there will be no need to rush on the night to be sure of a seat. Sales have been strong but there remain tickets available for both performances.

Panto Competition:

Our Panto Poster competition was such a hard decision to make. It produced a lot of wonderful work that is now on display in our assembly hall and foyer. Congratulations to Rosanna Fullerton from P7 for her winning design (on left). We plan to use one of the poster entries for our programme. Well done to Jonathan Dawson in P4 for his beautiful artwork (on right)!!

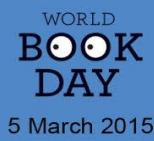

Photographs this week:

This week our children in P1, P2 & P3 have been hard at work in class working on Literacy in P2/3 and the farm topic in P1. Our eagle eyed photographer has taken and uploaded lots of photographs to our school website and here are a just a few:

World Book Day: On Friday the 5th March it will be World Book Day. Children & staff not going to Meadowbank (see below) can come to school dressed as their favourite book character. P6/7 will also be hosting children's award winning author Derek Keilty who will be reading from his latest children's novel and working with our children on story writing.

Eco Schools Event: As a double award winning school for the Eco Schools Green Flag award we will be participating in a large scale Eco Schools 20th Birthday Event in the Meadowbank Centre, Magherafelt on Thursday 5th March. Our P5 children and members of our Eco Committee from P3-P7 will be attending in full school uniform. Children should bring coats, break and a packed lunch. They will leave school after assembly and return before 2.50pm

Staffing Next Week in School: We have a busy week next week with a variety of things happening. For your information and so that you can share it with the children: Mrs Clarke will be out of school on Monday and Tuesday and Mrs Magee will be covering P1. Miss Millar and I will be out of school on Friday and Mrs Magee will be covering P2/3.
